Please read the manual to avoid mistakes!

- The embroidery can be started from any part of the drawing after determining the distance from the center in cells (T2).
- Colors of threads are indicated in T1.
- The embroidery is done (T1):
 - with a cross-stitch in a 6-stranded cotton mouline or a 3-stranded woolen thread;
 - with a half-stitch in a 6-stranded cotton mouline or a 3-stranded

- woolen thread (bow, contour of the face and other details);
- with a 2-strand stitch (wig, jabot, legs).
- The work will look good if all upper stitches are inclined in one direction (T3).
- Avoid knots. Hide the thread ends under the stitches of the reverse side (T4).
- Iron the finished embroidery from the reverse side.
